

Gentlemen:XM radio is an advance of communication technology and it should not be restricted in any way. To deprive users of local information is not warranted or fair and is simply a ploy of commerical radio station to protect their markets. This is not in the best interest of US citizens. We do not need more government regulation in our lives. I oppose this proposed legislation.

Regards,
Mark V. Wohlschlegel